PERFECTION REACHED.

The permanency of the resources of this section is causing the construction in many lines, of plants unequalled at any other point on the Pacific Coast for their modern and up to date arrangement. The best locations are selected, the most improved machinery is procured and the workmanship is the most scientific that can be obtained. The machine shops, the saw mills, the canneries and many other institutions here, not only surpass the majority on the Pacific Coast but equal the best in the world.

The cold storage plant recently completed for the Columbia River Packers' Association is regarded as the climax of mechanical, scientific and practical success. The construction in every way is the most modern and up-to-date. The plant throughout is an exemplification of mechanical skill; the machinery works with the precision of a fine grade watch, and every compartment is a revelation to those who have seen it and are sufficiently informed about such matters to

TEARFUL.

Trembling, frightened, she knows not why. Between her sobs she tells her husband of her misery. It is not enough for the husband to comfort the wife in this condition, she needs help. In those early days when the shadow of maternity first begins to fall upon the woman she is often nervous, sleepless, without appetite, and full of vague fears.

The help needed by women at this crisis is fully furnished by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It restores the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It gives physical strength and mental buoyancy to meet the trial of motherhood, and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. F. S. Douglas of Mansfield, Iowa Co. Que. "During the first four months when I looked at becoming a mother I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each and when I had taken them a few days I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (it could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick to get these medicines or write to Dr. Pierce."

Speaking of the new plant yesterday, Mr. C. B. Truscott who has made the cold storage question a specialty for a number of years said: "It is a case where perfection has been reached. Besides the building having been constructed of the best material and the machinery secured of the finest quality, the location is in every way most favorable; the water arrangements could not be improved upon, and the convenience for receiving fish all go to make for it what is claimed—perfection. The manner of the construction of the walls is a feature within itself. The use of paper and wool in their construction gives perfect control over the temperature. It surpasses every other plant of the kind on the Pacific Coast and equals any in the world. I repeat, it is perfection reached."

Contractor Harris, of Portland, had charge of the construction of the building and he has done himself proud. The present capacity of the plant is sufficient for all demands and equals any on the Pacific Coast. The machinery is ample to put out three times the amount of the present demand and the storage department may be enlarged in case the demand should ever justify it.

As the new structures go up in this section it is well to call the attention of the outside world to them as it will inform them of what is here and have a tendency to induce others to join in taking advantage of the great resources at the mouth of the Columbia.

The Columbia River Packers' Association is to be congratulated.

That "truth is stronger than fiction" is well illustrated in the romance of Miss Asahene Earl, a Portland girl, but recently a telephone "hello," in San Francisco. She answered a call from Wm. Halleck Deming, a rich young millionaire, and her sweet voice captured him. He laid siege to her heart with the result that she is now his wife and on a tour to Europe. The fortunate young woman is a graduate of the Portland High School and is said to be worthy of all the good fortune that has so unexpectedly come to her.

Miss Ellen M. Stone, the ransomed missionary, makes the commendable statement that so much of the proceeds of her lecture as necessary will be devoted to the refunding of sums to those who financially embarrassed themselves in subscribing her ransom fund. Lecture bureaus are already in courts contesting rights to Miss Stone's services.

The Belgian government is up against a grave crisis and it will require the judgment and advice of her brainiest statesman, to extricate her from her present dilemma.

The fight on Idaho, which has resulted in his nomination for collector of customs for Washington, being held up, will probably develop into one of the greatest political sensations in the history of the West.

It seems that the president is determined upon a thorough investigation of the alleged "water cure" said to have been practiced upon refractory natives by United States soldiers. This determination is in the line of justice and should be full and searching.

The price of meat is still climbing up and may probably cause a resort to the vegetarian diet. A restaurant steak is small enough now and to further curtail its proportions would be recognized as an insult to appetite.

A Yonkers, New York, brewery agent made himself such a good fellow with his associates that he was enabled to get away with about $5000 that did not belong to him. Such is life in the effete East.

The trading stamp business has gone into a decline, judging from the fact that 160 Oakland merchants decided not to use them any more.

Miss Stone would reimburse those who embarrassed themselves in contributing to her ransom fund. Doubtless no one will make the demand as contributors generally were able to do so.

DREADFUL ATTACK OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS CURED.

On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction."
